WRIT PETITION NO.11274 of 2006

ORDER: (Per the Hon'ble Mr Justice B.Prakash Rao)

Heard both the sides.

At their request, the Writ Petition itself is taken up for disposal at the stage of admission.

The petitioners seek to assail the admission and ordering notice at the interlocutory stage seeking stay of the order of transfer impugned in O.A.No.3099 of 2006 on the file of the Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal ('the Tribunal' for brevity).

Though several contentions have been urged, especially the order of transfer being virtually punitive, now the entire enquiry is stopped and there is no warrant for such transfer. Even otherwise, having regard to the orders, the question of transfer does not arise.

Having heard the learned counsel on either side and on perusal of the material available on record, it is seen that since the Tribunal has already admitted the main application, the petitioner can as well pursue the same towards the logical end rather than invoking the extraordinary jurisdiction of Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Hence, we are not inclined to entertain the Writ Petition at this stage.

Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No costs.
